Read: The Bible Passage - 1 Samuel 16

The Lord said to Samuel "I am sending you to Jesse who lives in Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king." Samuel did what the Lord told him to do.

When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of Bethlehem shook with fear. They met him and asked, "Are you coming in peace?"

Samuel answered, "Yes, I come in peace. I have come to make a sacrifice to the Lord. Make yourselves holy for the Lord and come to the sacrifice with me."

When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab. Samuel thought, "Surely the Lord has appointed this person standing here before him."

But the Lord said to Samuel, "Don't look at how handsome Eliab is. Don't look at how tall he is. I have not chosen him. God does not see the same way people see. People look at the outside of a person, but the Lord looks at the heart."

Jesse had seven of his sons pass by Samuel.

But Samuel said to him,

"The Lord has not chosen any of these."

Then he asked Jesse, "Are these all the sons you have?"

Jesse answered, "I still have the youngest son. He is out taking care of the sheep."

Samuel said, "Send for him. We will not sit down to eat until he arrives."

So Jesse sent and had his youngest son brought in.
The Lord said to Samuel, "Go! Appoint him. He is the one."

So Samuel took the container of olive oil. Then he poured oil on Jesse's youngest son to appoint him in front of his brothers.

From that day on, the Lord's Spirit entered David with power.

ELIAB:

Think about the story:

Samuel was surprised that God had not chosen Eliab, Jesse's eldest son, to be the new king. He was even more surprised when he saw David!

Draw and label a picture of Eliab - what do you think he looked like?
Show why Samuel assumed that he would be the anointed king?

Challenge: Did you notice which town Samuel was sent to? (Unscramble the letters!)

TBEEHMEHL

This story from the Bible comes from the Old Testament but the next time we hear about this town is in the New Testament.

or size?

Christians believe that God looks at what is in a person's heart and not what they look like on the outside. In the frame below, draw a picture of yourself and write words around the picture to show what is in your heart. You might choose words like 'kindness', 'love', 'courage'. Think about the values that are important to you.

Were you surprised to find out what these young people had achieved?

CHALLENGE

These photos link to the idea of being chosen and 'anointed', just like the story of David.

Can you work out why and how?

Who is the young person in the centre of the photograph?

How do you think she is feeling?

Can you write a news report of what is happening here?
