

Using conjunctions

- Choose a conjunction to join each pair of sentences. Remember to use only one capital letter and one full stop in the new sentence.

so since but where although so that when if as before or because while before after as

1. The bus reached the school. It stopped.

2. Josh wanted to stay with Mum. He was only five.

3. Josh was nervous. He tried to be brave.

4. Josh wriggled and squirmed. Mum combed his hair fiercely.

5. Josh's prized possession was a lucky badge. Dad had given it to him.

6. Mum pulled Josh by the hand. He went in the right direction.

7. A badge was worn in school. It was taken away.

8. Josh pressed his ear against the window. He heard no happy children.
